

This was my original development of the textiles and motif presented from the business plan. I also experimented with the bird shape presented in the business plan however I didn't like the flow of it as I felt a bird motif should be freer and more relaxed.